Significant Issues and Responsive Programming
July 1 – September 30, 2010

Following are the categories of issues/concerns determined by WBTV to be of significance in the service area. Under each are described typical and illustrative programs, broadcast during the period, to address those problems and needs. This listing is representative only. It is neither a comprehensive listing of all needs of the service areas as ascertained by the licensee nor the totality of the licensee's responsive programming to those needs.

Applicable CBS/network programming is attached by hard copy. All responsive local programming produced outside the already dedicated newscasts is aired in prime access time periods.

Utilizing information gathered from news personnel, WBTV staff members, local community groups and leaders, and viewer research the following list has been compiled and is the most current significant problems, needs, and interests within our community today. Below is a representative list:

Economy

Public Safety

Social/Human Services

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

ECONOMY

7/2/10 Donut Economy (7:00 p.m. 1:36)

A donut frenzy unfolding in Salisbury. Krispy Kreme's Cheerwine flavored donut is an instant success. The Winston-Salem based company has seen some dark spots in their financial picture. But this injection of pink goo is making that picture rosy again.

7/16/10 Bank of America Earnings (7:00 p.m. :23)

Charlotte based BOA just posted a 15% increase in profits last quarter. The bank made 2.8 billion dollars from April-June. That's well ahead of analysts expectations.

7/16/10 Goodwill Shopping (5:00 p.m. 1:44)

7/16/10 Goodwill Shopping (7:00 p.m. 1:47)

WBTV On Your Side helping you dress for less – provided you some time on your hands. Anchor and Consumer Reporter Kristen Miranda shows how this kind of shopping can become addictive. Kristen followed a shopper around who bought 20-30 items for about $20.

7/19/10 Epicenter Foreclosure (6:00 p.m. 1:10)

The Epicenter is 267,000 square feet and full of shops, restaurants and night life. Before it was built, Charlotte used to be a sleepy town after bank hours, the Epicenter revived it. And most of the businesses there are thriving, but the actual Epicenter could be sold at auction after owners foreclosed recently.

7/23/10 NC Unemployment (5:00 p.m. :25)

NC Unemployment rates have dropped in the past month, and are down a full percentage point since June of 2009.

8/6/10 Tax Free Shopping (7:00 p.m. 1:25)

The tax free holiday in both North and South Carolina is officially underway. WBTV's Derrick Rose is on your side and shows you everything you need to know before you head out to the stores.

8/24/10 Cabarrus County Business Boom (7:00 p.m. 1:21)

There's a sign waiting to go on the wall at Haskell Hardware in Landis...it says vision is to see the organization not as it is, but as it can become...and right now Mark Haskell sees some good indicators. After laying off 6 workers last year, the company has hired back those positions. Haskell's new location is filling up with inventory to keep those workers busy. The construction industry is what sustains companies like this...if banks are loaning the money the houses and apartments will be going up...another thing going up, the list of members of the local chamber of commerce.

8/30/10 Economic Forecasts (6:00 p.m. 1:46)

Home sales are in a free-fall. Unemployment remains stubbornly high. The nation's broadest measure of economic activity, are slipping sharply. No wonder everyone's got the jitters. So we asked experts what you need to know. This is Wells Fargo chief economist Jay Bryson. Jay, we were essentially barraged with bad economic news last week. A lot of national economists say right now they think we are headed towards a double dip recession. What's your take? We don't think we're in a double dip though I wouldn't say we think the economy's going to get good any time soon.

8/30/10 Crisis Assistance Shopping (7:00 p.m. 1:20)

It's business as usual at Crisis Assistance Ministry's free clothing store. Volunteers..busy hanging clothes and stocking items. The items go so quickly, volunteers restock half of their inventory every day. Myrah McDowell is a volunteer and shopper. She needs the free clothes. Program Manager Pete Heuberger says due to the economy the population they serve has expanded.

9/1/10 Road to Recovery Job Fair (5:00 a.m. :19, 6:00 a.m. :19, 12N :22)

Today's economy is tough -- finding a job can be even harder.

That's why WBTV is on your side with an upcoming job fair -- to help you find work or switch careers. Today is the day for the WBTV Road to Recovery Job Fair. It's from 10 until 2, today at Concord Mills. For more information, head to wbtv.com and click on the jobs section.

9/8/10 York County New Jobs (5:00 p.m. :22)

Great economic news tonight for York County. Lava USA, a knitted fabric maker--is pumping nearly 4 million dollars into the economy and hiring 30 people. The company has taken over the former Sattler Plastics building on Railroad Avenue in York. If you're interested in a job--they're already hiring. Head to wbtv.com for more information on how to get your application in!

9/14/10 Economy helps reduce collisions (6:00 p.m. 1:04)

CDOT says it simply can't explain why our city streets are suddenly safer. But, interestingly enough, economists say they can. Nationally, the number of people killed in auto accidents hit its lowest level in five decades in 2008, when the economy slid deep into recession and gas prices reached $4 bucks a gallon.

9/21/10 BUY AMERICAN to help Economy (5:00 p.m. :47)

Mecklenburg County is making an effort to support the country--and the local economy. County commissioners have been updating their so-called Buy American policy-- ensuring business done in the county is benefiting workers here. The challenge for the county - because it's funded through taxes - it's required to look for the lowest qualified bidder.. and that's not always an American company. Buy American has been a county policy for years.. tonight the county commission is reaffirming the current policy for county purchases.

PUBLIC SAFETY

7/8/10 Cyber-Turf - Shopping on Amazon.com (5:00 p.m. 1:10, 7:00 p.m. 1:10)

7/11/10 (5:00 a.m. 1:10, 6:00 a.m. 1:10)

Concerns about computer safety from viewers in the Charlotte area are brought former White House Cyber Expert Theresa Payton. Segment airs every Thursday, and is often repeated on Saturday or Sunday morning. July 8 the topic was shopping on Amazon.com.

7/16/10 West Nile Virus (6:00 p.m. 1:44)

There was a time when it was the lead story in health reports everywhere. West Nile Virus, easy to catch, potentially deadly, the next big epidemic. Mosquito season came & went, so did the alarm. Now, it's bug season again and barely a peep about the disease.

7/22/10 Protecting your Cyber-Turf – Email addresses for your children (5:00 p.m. 1:29, 7:00 p.m. 1:29)

7/25/10 (5:00 a.m. 1:08, 6:00 a.m. 1:08)

Concerns about computer safety from viewers in the Charlotte area are brought former White House Cyber Expert Theresa Payton. Segment airs every Thursday, and is often repeated on Saturday or Sunday morning. July 22 the topic was email addresses for your child, when are they old enough?

8/5/10 Stallings Polic Department (11:00 p.m. 1:09)

Stallings mayor Linda Paxton says at some point the town should at least consider contracting with the Union County Sheriff's office instead of having its own force...she says it could save a million dollars. Emotional residents stormed City Hall in protest. They are considered about their safety with no local police officers.

8/24/10 Swift Water Training – Charlotte Fire Dept. (5:30 p.m. 1:26)

Whether it's someone being swept away, or stranded in the trees, somebody's got to save them...and that's where these folks come in. The Charlotte Fire Department is a leader in swift water and urban rescue knowledge. Skills they've needed a lot this summer. We're getting torrential downpours and with them building a lot of stuff, stuff's flooding a whole lot more. It doesn't take a hurricane to cause problems anymore. Sometimes it just rains too much is our motto. No big rain today so Duke Energy helped out by opening floodgates on Lake James, turning the lazy Catawba River into class three rapids.. Today's focus was on boat handling, as well as rescues, maintaining control amidst the swift water.

8/24/10 Operation Road Watch (6:00 a.m. 1:04)

It kicks off this morning at six o'clock. Now, when you're driving a multi-ton truck loaded down with - who knows what down the freeway going at sixty-five miles an hour, no matter how good you are - that could be a dangerous situation. I've seen it first-hand how bad it can be. The Highway Patrol is hoping to make it a little bit safer. They're calling it Operation Road Watch - and put simply, it's to avoid accidents like this one, where a big-rig and a car collided - with deadly results. The Highway Patrol will be targeting aggressive driving, unsecured loads and haz-mat issues. The goal of the program is to try and reduce collisions involving semi trucks and smaller passenger vehicles. Accidents where one gets entangled with the other - can be very tragic.

8/26/10 See Click Fix – Hole in the road (6:00 a.m. 1:06)

A large hole that butts right up to this Charlotte Mecklenburg utilities water meter. It alarmed one WBTV viewer enough to write this post on our see, click, fix page online. Dale writes, "hole in the sidewalk big enough to step in where 1000's of Panther fans walk each week...severe safety hazard". So you have a public sidewalk with businesses lining the street, and you look down here a few blocks down you've got bank of america stadium, it's plenty of opportunity for someone to be walking down the sidewalk, accidentally stepping into this hole and hurting themselves, so we're gonna see if we can get this fixed. We took pictures of the 8 or so inch deep gap in the ground and sent them directly to the folks at Charlotte Mecklenburg utilities.

8/31/10 Cross Walk Concern (11:00 p.m. 2:05)

A safety crew met here this morning to see what more can be done to keep kids and parents safe. Neighbors are crossing their fingers changes will be made. This came after a boy was hit in front of his school in a hit and run. The boy is fine, just cuts and bruises, but the driver is still on the loose.

9/8/10 Booster Seat Safety (5:00 p.m. :42)

The good news first - booster seats do twice the job of protecting your child - than they did last year. The Institute for Highway Safety tested 72 of them - said 30 percent got top marks. Only 15 percent did last year. A lot of that has to do with the placement of the seatbelt - where it hits your child's body when they are in the seat. That's also where the bad news comes in - Some of these booster seats that may work well in one car - might not give the same snug fit in another vehicle. Here's what you need to look for - a good booster seat will position the lap belt across a child's upper thighs - and the shoulder belt at mid-shoulder. We'll put the list of best and worst performers on the Consumer page at WBTV dot com.

9/17/10 Seatbelt Crackdown (7:00 p.m. 1:40)

People are behind the wheel, no seatbelt in sight, as if they're waving their right to safety by making a dangerous decision. In Fort Mill, Police Captain Andy Robinson (who has been in law enforcement 14 years now) has seen how important a seatbelt can be. He has seen too many accidents with fatalities that could have been avoided. Police are trying their best to enforce the law with every tactic they know.

9/23/10 Vehicle Technology Safety (5:00 p.m. 1:29, 7:00 p.m. 1:24)

9/26/10 (5:00 a.m. 1:13, 6:00 a.m. 1:13)

Concerns about computer safety from viewers in the Charlotte area are brought former White House Cyber Expert Theresa Payton. Segment airs every Thursday, and is often repeated on Saturday or Sunday morning. Sept. 23 the topic was vehicle technology - some of the new technology is allowing people to send a message to a driver electronically that their tire pressure is low, or that they need to pull over to check something with their car. This leaves them in a vulnerable position on the side of the road.

SOCIAL; HUMAN SERVICES

7/8/10 (6:00 p.m. 1:26)

This is Top Dawg Sweepstakes...it's a booming little business full of computer-based gambling games...Eric Sigmund is an owner...and he signs $300,000 worth of paychecks every year. In his mind he owns a legitimate business, one that will be closed by Christmas. The state wants to make it crystal clear - a 2006 ban on video poker also applies to computer-based sweepstakes games...saying they have the same effect as video poker, that they seduce players and swipe their cash.

7/16/10 BBB Scam (5:00 p.m. :24)

7/17/10 BBB Scam (5:00 a.m., 6:00 a.m., :24)

A new facebook link promises to reveal the ugly truth about Coca-Cola. But the ugly truth is, it's a scam, don't click on the link or you will end up with a computer virus.

7/23/10 24 Hours of Booty (6:00 p.m. 2:04)

NATS Cyclists riding by, it's July on the "Booty Loop" in Myers Park. It means plenty of bikes sharing the road, getting ready to take over an entire neighborhood in the name of fighting cancer. The 24 Hours of Booty Charity Bike Ride (raises money for the Lance Armstrong Foundation) kicks off July 30 this year. WBTV is a proud sponsor of the event.

8/6/10 Bike Friendly (7:00 p.m. 2:09)

Jeff Atkinson reports the 7:00 p.m. "Cover Story" about bike friendly roads in Charlotte. As late as a decade ago in the cycling world they talked openly about the not-so-friendly roads of Charlotte. What happened to change the image? Quite a lot! In 2008 the City of Charlotte adopted a Bike Master Plan.

8/6/10 Greenway Opens (7:00 p.m. :32)

8/7/10 Greenway Opens (7:00 a.m. :32)

Another big stretch of the Little Sugar Creek Greenway opened today. From Charlottetowne Avenue to Morehead Street. The new trail stretches all the way from Park Road, and getting closer to Uptown. Eventually, it will run from NoDa to the state line.

8/13/10 Community Service (10:00 p.m. :59)

This is Democratic District Attorney candidate Michael Barnes speaking Friday morning to dozens of high school seniors and juniors... all these kids are motivated teens looking to get a step ahead. They're part of the Mayors Youth Employment Program... a group championed by the Mayor and council -- Barnes is a council member. M.Y.E.P. matches kids up with companies to help with their future. Service, he says, is an important role for District Attorney.

8/16/10 Lancaster Schools First Day (5:00 p.m. 1:19)

Principal Blum says her school doesn't have many new teachers because last year many of her first year teachers were laid off from budget cuts, however they do have a full allotment of teachers. All are learning to do more with less. "Supply wise we're not getting as much money from the state as we were at one time." Blum says many churches and community organizations have donated school supplies. "All of our children have the supplies they need to start school." As teachers and kids get hit the books again -- It was the first day for some parents too.

9/14/10 Charlotte City Manager Pay Raise (5:30 p.m. :52)

Despite a down economy, Charlotte's City Manager is getting a raise... and it's TWICE as big as the one given to other city workers.

At last night's city council meeting, members voted 6-to-5 to increase Curt Walton's pay by 4-percent. Other city workers got a 2% raise this year. Walton's total compensation will now be more than $234,000 dollars a year.

9/16/10 Scrap Metal (5:30 p.m. 1:25)

The price for aluminum copper has really sky-rocketed and scrap yards will pay a good price for this so people will go out and steal on private property. If a deputy suspects a person of hauling metal and doesn't have a permit to haul metal they can be fined or arrested. The owner of this scrap yard who didn't want to go on camera told me since the economy's been slow he's gotten more business from people selling scrap metal to get some extra money like Polk. "how much do you think you'll get.... NOt much maybe $20."

Polk understand there's folks out there that sell metal illegally but he's not one of them and if he gets a ticket for not having a permit.

9/17/10 Single Ladies Vs. Single Men in Charlotte (11:00 p.m. 2:51)

Is there a shortage of single ladies. In some places yes...and it's causing men to get married at a younger age. Apparently when there are more men than women in an area...the average age of marriage drops. Scientists believe that's because guys are scrambling to find women before they run out. We didn't make this up...it's a study done in a scientific journal. So what's the ration of men to women in Charlotte? It's equal. So no one has the advantage here. In the Queen city....the average age for men's first marriage is 26...still pretty young.

9/27/10 When does "NO" mean "NO" in North Carolina? (11:00 p.m. 1:27)

Both the accuser and her father say she never consented to sex with Sombo. But the Da's office says it dropped charged against Sombo because it appeared from her statements she consented at first, then changed her mind.

Here's what the prosecutor wrote: "it hurt and she told him to stop. Mr. Sombo did not acquiesce to her desire and proceeded..." State v. Way states that if (intercourse starts) with the victim's consent, no rape has occurred though the victim later withdraws her consent during the same act of intercourse."

"We want the representatives and the senators to take up this bill and write it so that if you say no it's no...like it is pretty much anywhere else in the world."

"It's outrageous. It's a violation of human rights." Feminist blogger Cara Kulwicki says North Carolina is among the few states she's heard of that treats consent like this.

WBTB EDITORIALS, 3Q 2010:

"Speak Out" is an expression of opinion from the Editorial Board of WBTB, and is presented by General Manager, Nick Simonette. WBTB's Speak Out Editorials air two-times per week in various Newscasts.

WBTB Speak Out: Land of the Free?

This weekend our nation pauses to celebrate the 4th of July, a day set apart to commemorate the adoption of the Declaration of Independence. John Adams believed it to be (quote) "a day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty." But Americans today inhabit a country that would be completely unrecognizable to its founders. Adams and the nation's settlers looked to God with prayerful concerns. Today, more and more Americans turn to Uncle Sam when faced with hard times. As a result, the government's dominance in our lives through taxes, regulation and surveillance has exploded like fireworks. The health care legislation recently rammed through Congress is only the tip of the iceberg. At 2,400 pages of dense legalese, the government now effectively controls some of life's most intimate, personal and important decisions: Who will receive medical care?...when?...where? and for how long? This is just one example. Ask yourself this holiday weekend "What else remains beyond the state's reach?" Not wages, working conditions, or money. Not banking, transportation, communication, or education. Not insurance, smoking, drinking...not even hunting or fishing. And so we verge ever closer to a condition in which everything is either required or prohibited. So, do we still live in the land of the free? And do we really care? Not if you judge by the dismal turnout at the last election. If you truly value freedom, voting is the only way your voice will be heard. Don't sit idly by as our country loses the birthright on which it was founded.

WBTB Speak Out: County Manager's Raise

Let's do some math. A ZERO increase in the budget equals ZERO merit raises for county employees. I get that. No money equals no raises for employees. What I don't get is how a ZERO increase equals a 27-thousand dollar pay increase for County Manager Harry Jones? Since when has ZERO equaled more than ZERO? Never. Recently, Mr. Jones requested a DECREASE to his compensation. It was a nice suggestion. But his base salary next year is actually going up! It'll be $242,500... his current pay is $215,655. This doesn't look like a decrease to us. How did this happen? The Commissioners had already agreed to pay Jones's health premiums if he's terminated before 2011... as well the premiums for his wife until she is eligible for Medicare. This is regardless of if Mr. Jones retires or is terminated. So at a time when county employees are being laid off, and NO raises are being given... the Top Dog makes 27-thousand more in salary and benefits. Maybe our budget woes aren't because Harry Jones received a raise. Maybe our commissioners need a math lesson.

WBTB Speak Out: Voter Apathy

Recent Primary elections caused our editorial board some concern. Not concern for who was elected -- but concern for the lack of you who voted. 14 percent. 14-percent??? Only 14-percent of North Carolinians voted in the May 4th primary?? What? It gets worse. In the second primary election in June, a dismal 4-and-a-half percent turned out. This Voter Apathy and extreme lack of interest in the elections is appalling. Folks -- voting is a right. Our forefathers died for it. You have that right because of their sacrifices. But it's also a responsibility -- one we ALL need to take seriously. It's very, very simple. To register to vote in North Carolina, you must: A) Be a U.S. Citizen. B) Have lived in the state for 30 days before the election and not be registered elsewhere. C) Be at least 18 years old. So here's our early reminder: Get registered before the elections on November 2nd. You've got ample time. That's the nice way of encouraging you. A viewer, John, writes in to Speak Out and says it a bit differently -- "Do you think anyone will notice when this country is stolen because we don't care enough to vote?" I'm sure hope not John, but I think you just helped get their attention.

WBTB Speak Out: Crime Doesn't Pay

A press release crossed my desk the other day -- A convenience store owner wasn't going to be prosecuted for shooting and killing a robber. The release stood out because... well... you listen to it. "I will not press charges against the two men who bravely defended their lives against a cowardly man who wore a mask to rob the Sunny Food Mart. The honest hard working families that operate small businesses must be free from the fear of being robbed. Those that choose to rob should be filled with fear that they will suffer the same fate as the deceased. In Union County we have a no return policy on armed robbery." It's signed, "Union County District Attorney, Johnny Snyder." Our opinion? It's about time. We get sick of hearing people talk a strong game, but not backing it up with actions. Here -- finally -- is a public action that protects the good guys. It gives a message: CRIME does NOT pay. There can be punishments for your actions... at least as evidenced by this case in Union County. We don't condone taking matters into your own hands. We definitely don't think arming yourself is always the answer. But we do think when a stranger chooses to suddenly -- surprisingly -- stick a gun in your face and demand money... you shouldn't be the one later held accountable.

WBTB Speak Out: CMS Diversity

There's a racial battle brewing inside the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System. Is the district keeping its word when it comes to diversifying classrooms? This dad brought this to our attention. He's fighting to keep his son enrolled at Hopewell High. Hopewell, he argued, IS diverse. But C-M-S wants his son to attend West Charlotte...a school closer to their home, but about 90-percent African-American. CMS parent Britton McGill says, "Close proximity wasn't taken into consideration last year when referring to our home school so it shouldn't be now." One of C-M-S' guiding principles is..."Diversity is key to a good education." It exposes students to a variety of cultures and backgrounds, and better prepares them for "the real world." But the system acknowledges that's a tall order. Why? Not all Charlotte communities are diverse. A neighborhood school ends up reflecting the area it's in. C-M-S also states it won't force the issue to make classrooms diverse. So will our classrooms only get more segregated? We hope not. We also wonder: "How can the public expect the school system to diversify its classrooms when -- candidly -- many Charlotte neighborhoods don't do the same?" We'll be honest. We don't know how to suddenly create more diversity in neighborhoods OR schools. But we do know it's time for C-M-S...the community...the government...EVERYONE...to work together to find that solution. After all, education needs to move forward and not backward when it comes to diversity.

WBTB Speak Out: Pay to Play

Want your child to play sports in Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools? Then get out your wallet. Because of a budget crunch, parents will now have to PAY to have their child PLAY. Fifty dollars per sport for every middle school student. A hundred bucks per sport for every high school student. We immediately see some red flags. Lots of them, in fact. But one that jumps out first is this - 50 percent of CMS students are economically disadvantaged. The district's athletic director says CMS will raise money - scholarships - so those students who want to play, but can't pay, will still have the same opportunity. To us, that just screams "problems-problems-problems." We see problems. What if not enough money is raised to help EVERY student? Does money go towards just the BIG sports? What if there's not enough money to help EVERY student? Will the scholarships go towards just the BIG sports? Or benefit just the great athletes? What if there's a child who really could benefit from playing, say, soccer? But all the money is being used to pay for the stars who couldn't afford the football fees? How do you prevent some kids from being lost in the system and some calling "FOUL"? We aren't opposed to Pay to Play. We understand tough budget times call for creative ways to manage money. But we hope the answers to these problems don't create more problems for the school district to tackle.

WBTV Speak Out: Stopping Repeat Drunk Drivers

"If you are bailing him out and giving him another try to kill someone like he killed my child. I mean, how many times are you going to bail him out, you know? You're giving him the gun to murder somebody." Michelle Armstrong is beside herself. Why shouldn't she be? Police say her 17-year old daughter, Laura, was killed by a repeat-repeat-repeat drunk driver. Howard Pasour had three previous drunk driving convictions. One in 2002... two in May of 2008. You have to be kidding me. Somebody please explain how he -- or any other drunk driver with previous DWI's -- is allowed back out on the road? Two local state reps, Wil Neumann and Tim Moore, say they're looking into changing laws so repeat drunk drivers don't kill anyone else. Here's one idea, guys. Make people charged with drunk driving wear alcohol monitoring bracelets for longer than 60 days. State law currently says two months is the max. But from what we can tell -- the bracelets work. They sense any alcohol in your system. Officers say in PAY-sour's case, when he had on the bracelet he didn't drink. A few months after having the bracelet removed?... ...Laura was dead. Is extending the time of an ankle bracelet the end-all answer to keeping drunk drivers off the road? No. But it's a start.

WBTV Speak Out: Editorial Response

Lots of you are responding to our Speak Out editorials... When it came to stimulus money funding UNC-Charlotte's online dance simulation, Karl from Vale in Lincoln County writes... "THIS IS SUCH A LARGE WASTE OF TAX PAYER DOLLARS!" After hearing 750-thousand was given to the program, viewer Greg says... "We all better wake up. People are going to start losing it, if we haven't already." A recent Speak Out talked about cracking down on drunk drivers. Candy from Watauga County's M-A-D-D writes... "We have a major problem in this area with Appalachian State University... ..Much too often, cases are dismissed by judges for reasons, frankly, that we do not understand." South Carolina's Karen Olive Pauli says... "A third time offender should be locked up for ten years or longer. I'm being nice here. I won't say what I'd really like to see done to them." When it came to "Pay to Play" for CMS, Stan Graham says... "I do not believe in a scholarship program at all for middle school or even high school--all you are doing is opening a can of worms. First of all, the "big" or "more recognized" sports are going to get preferential treatment." And recently, when it came to our Estate Tax, Leslie Carlson says... "In the interest of fairness you should have mentioned the limits of the estate tax... ..Your editorial is nothing more than propaganda without the details."

WBTV Speak Out: Private Citizens Supporting Public Education

It's a sad situation... Many kids in our communities are on the verge of failure. Listen to these facts: Three out of ten Charlotte Mecklenburg students drop out each year. The achievement gap between black and white students is in double digits. C-M-S continues its struggle to make all students successful. But here's some possible good news: The philanthropic community wants to help. To prove they are serious, they're actually putting their money where their mouth is. A group of prominent citizens wants to find a way to lower the drop-out rate and improve the achievement gap. Once they find it - they will pay for it to be implemented in C-M-S. We applaud their efforts. We hope this strategy gets the job done. Imagine if this works! It will give at-risk students a shot at success. They could join the workforce, not the prison population. And IF it works, it'd be a step towards saying public education works because the community helped make it happen. With that said, this by no means is a sign parents are off the hook. It also takes moms and dads to ensure success for their own kids. The group is scheduled to come up with a plan for CMS at the end of this year. And we hope what they recommend will help change a generation.

WBTV Speak Out: Komen Charlotte Race For The Cure

51-year old Lea Hogan from Concord has reason to smile big. She's a 15-year breast cancer survivor. 29-year old Mary Geneva Brackett is also excited to tell you -- She beat breast cancer one year ago. Tia Bullett? 43 years old. From Charlotte. A proud 4 year survivor. 55-year old Jane Jacobs, from Kannapolis, is just as proud of her 4 years. These are four faces of thousands in our community who can stand straight and say -- I am a survivor. These four are also able to say -- "I make an impact". All these women will be taking part in this year's Susan G. Komen Charlotte's Race for the Cure. WBTV is a sponsor of the event. We have been for years. Why? Because we care. The numbers are too big not to. One in 8 women get breast cancer. It could be your mother, your sister, your daughter, your aunt. It could be you. And it's not just women. American Cancer Society says breast cancer kills 300 men a year. So, make an impact. Whether you participate in Race for the Cure, or volunteer with another breast cancer organization... Do something to promote the power of early detection. Know the importance of continued support. Lea... Mary Geneva... Tia... and Jane... along with the thousands of survivors watching right now... they all say thank you.

WBTV Speak Out: Too Many Bypasses?

If you've ever driven U.S. 74 through Monroe, you know how congested it can be. Recently, federal approval was given for a Monroe Connector-Bypass. This new toll road will circumvent Highway 74, already a bypass for "Old Charlotte Highway" in Monroe. The 20-mile highway will cost between $750 and $825 million. Viewer Lynn Williams speaks out with a great point: "It's unbelievable that they are going to build a bypass around Monroe...disrupting homes and businesses when the trucking companies are already using Highway 218...as a bypass. The state should widen and four-lane Highway 218....(This) would have a minimum impact and probably cost much less in land acquisition and construction." Lynn, you may be right. Are we making the best use of assets already in existence? It's past the time for state and local governments to take a hard look at how land is developed. Shelby, for example, suffering from sprawling growth along U.S. 74 in Cleveland County, now wants a new Bypass -- at taxpayer expense. As a growing community, we'll continue to need new and improved roads. But there's only so much room to build bypasses. Urge your local and state leaders to make wise decisions about development. Speak Out, and you can make a difference.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

07/03/10 PREEMPTION

07/10/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Seven Days Of Rage: The Craigslist Killer" - a follow-up to "Craigslist: Classified For Murder" (OAD: 04/25/09). On April 14, 2009, model and masseuse Julissa Brisman was found murdered in a Boston hotel. Over the course of the next seven days, police investigation revealed that Brisman and two other female victims of assault had been contacted through ads they had placed on the website Craigslist. Police traced computer evidence to Philip Markoff, a medical student at Boston University. He was arrested for kidnapping, armed robbery and murder. A search of his apartment produced incriminating evidence, including the gun that killed Julissa Brisman. Further investigation of Markoff's e-mail address revealed his own ads on several adult alternative-lifestyle websites. Concluding onscreen graphic: Philip Markoff is expected to stand trial next June. Craigslist renamed its erotic services section, calling it adult services. Critics say nothing has changed. Among those interviewed: Trisha Leffler, Markoff's first victim; Maria Cramer, reporter, The Boston Globe and 48 HOURS consultant; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paul LaRosa, 48 HOURS producer; Mark Pines, friend of victim Julissa Brisman; Maureen Orth, writer; Casey Jordan, attorney and psychologist; Morgan Houston, friend of Philip Markoff; Steve Huff, crime blogger and contributor to the True Crime Report. (C: Peter Van Sant, Richard Schlesinger - P: Paul LaRosa, Sarah Prior) (OAD: 09/19/09)

07/16/10 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Year We Disappeared" - On August 31, 1979, John Busby, a Falmouth, Massachusetts police officer, was ambushed in his car by a gunman in a passing car who shot him point blank in the face with a shotgun. Although brutally wounded, Busby was able to write a note for police at the scene that said "Not an accident. Mel Reine." Melvin Reine, a convicted arsonist and suspected murderer of three people, was a local thug whose brother, John Reine, had been arrested by John Busby. For undetermined reasons, Melvin Reine had long intimidated the Falmouth police, and the attempted murder of John Busby was not aggressively investigated. Fearing for their safety, the Busby family moved to an undisclosed location in Tennessee. Twenty-four years after the shooting, in 2003, John Reine confessed to the police that his brother Melvin had indeed shot John Busby while he, Melvin, drove the car. However, because of the statute of limitations, the Reines will remain unpunished. Melvin is now institutionalized, in a state of dementia. John Busby and his daughter Cylin have written a memoir together, entitled "The Year We Disappeared". Includes narration by John Busby; Cylin Busby, his daughter; Kellie Collier-Driscoll, his niece; Polly Busby, his wife; Rick Smith, Falmouth police officer. (Producers: Chuck Stevenson, Liza Finley, Katherine Davis, Chris Young) (OAD: 02/14/09)

07/17/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Toxic" - a followup to "Tracking A Killer" (OAD: 12/11/02). On December 2, 2000, 30-year-old Eric Miller died in a Raleigh, North Carolina hospital. Blood tests had revealed that he had been poisoned with arsenic. Police investigation discovered that Eric's wife, Ann, a chemist, was having an affair with Derril Willard, a biochemist who worked at the same company as she. On the day after police initially questioned him about Eric's death, Derril Willard committed suicide. Prior to doing so, he had a confidential conversation with his lawyer, Rick Gammon. Years passed -- and in the spring of 2004, the North Carolina Supreme Court ruled that Gammon must reveal what Willard had told him about Ann's role in Eric's murder. Gammon then revealed how Ann admitted to Derril Willard that she had injected a substance into Eric's IV bag...and Willard had told Gammon that he himself had never tried to kill Eric. Ann Miller was charged with Eric's murder. Because the District Attorney and the Miller family had misgivings about the outcome of a trial, Ann was offered a plea bargain: twenty-five years in prison for Eric's murder. She accepted. Among those interviewed are: Lieutenant Chris Morgan, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Doris and Versus Miller, Eric's parents; Pam Baitzell and Leeann Magee, Eric's sisters; Renee Henson, Ann Miller's college roommate; Deborah Regentin, detective, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Yvette Willard, widow of Derril Willard; Michael Teague, forensic psychologist; Rick Gammon, attorney for the late Derril Willard. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

07/23/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Show Me The Money" - In November 2000, bank manager and single mother Michelle Renee was in her Vista, California home with her seven-year-old daughter Breca, when three masked gunmen broke into the house. The gunmen held them captive overnight, and in the morning strapped dynamite onto their backs. Breca was shoved into a closet, while Michelle was ordered to rob the bank where she worked. If she didn't comply, the gunmen said they would detonate the dynamite. She obeyed, and the next morning she cleaned out the bank vault and gave the gunmen a duffel bag containing $360,000. Police and FBI investigation soon apprehended four suspects: Christopher Butler, Lisa Ramirez, Christopher Huggins, and Robert Ortiz. But investigators were suspicious that Michelle had been involved in the robbery -- the dynamite had turned out to be fake; she had claimed that she had recognized one of the masked robbers as a customer, even though he had been in her bank only once; and she herself had filed for bankruptcy - for the second time - only a month before the robbery. However, no proof was ever discovered to confirm this suspicion. Eighteen months later, Butler and Ramirez went on trial. Ramirez's confession was ruled inadmissible because it implicated Butler, who had admitted to nothing. Finally, Ramirez was found innocent, and Butler guilty only of kidnapping Renee's daughter and roommate, Kimbra; he was not convicted of kidnapping Michelle Renee. Two months later, Huggins and Ortiz went on trial, and were found guilty of all charges, including the kidnapping of Michelle Renee. Includes interviews with Michelle Renee; Breca Renee; Loretta Myers, former co-worker with Michelle Renee; Rick Brown, neighbor of Renee; investigators Dale Martin, Rudy Zamora, Randi Demers; Tom Manning, prosecutor; Herb Weston, attorney for Ramirez. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Cry for Innocence" - A report on Damien Echols, who has been on death row in Arkansas for the past 16 years, convicted of murdering three eight-year-old boys: Stevie Branch, Chris Byers and Michael Moore. At the time, amidst a country-wide media-fueled hysteria about Satanic cults, Damien, because of his affinity for long hair and dressing in black became a prime suspect, along with friends Jason Baldwin and Jesse Misskelley. The trio, known as the West Memphis Three, were convicted of triple-murder: Misskelley and Baldwin sentenced to life in prison, while Damien Echols received the death penalty. The police had no evidence linking Echols to the crime until Misskelley, whose lawyer says he has the mental capabilities of a five-year-old and barely knew Echols, confessed to helping him and Jason Baldwin commit the murders -- although many of the facts he recounted about the crime were incorrect. Misskelley was tried first, convicted and sentenced. Echols and Baldwin went on trial together: Misskelley refused to testify against them, and by law his confession could not be used against them. Still, they were convicted. As word of this case spread, so did the outrage over what many believed was a grave injustice. Members of the entertainment community, including actor Johnny Depp and musicians Natalie Maines and Eddie Vedder, came to their support. An HBO documentary, "Paradise Lost", and a book by Mara Leveritt entitled "Devil's Knot", detailed flaws in the case and now, forensic scientists have challenged the causes of the wounds inflicted on the victims, and sworn affidavits have revealed possible jury misconduct and new DNA evidence points away from the three convicted men and towards someone unexpected -- Terry Hobbs, Steve Branch's step-father at the time of the murders. As Echols prepares to take his case to federal court, he has some unexpected support from the parents of two of the victims: Mark Byers and Pam Branch, who now agree that justice has not been served. Interviewed: Damien Echols; Lorri Davis, a landscape architect from New York, who married Echols after researching the case; actor Johnny Depp; victims' parents Pam Branch and Mark Byers; Jerry Driver, West Memphis juvenile officer; Dan Stidham, Misskelley's lawyer; Dennis Riordan, attorney now heading Echols' legal team; Rachael Geiser, private investigator; Terry Hobbs, Stevie Branch's former step-father; Debbie Moyer and her daughter Jamie Ballard, former neighbors of the Branch family. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

07/30/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Kidnap on Highway 1" - In November 2007, Chris and Debra Hall, and their children, Tyler and Divinia, were driving back to California from Mexico, when they were pulled over a few miles from the U.S. border by what they thought were police. A man in a military uniform approached and suddenly put a gun to Chris' head. Moments later the family was ambushed by a second car of gunmen. As the kidnappers drove them onto a dirt road in the mountains outside Tijuana, they began asking about a race car. While in Mexico, Chris and Tyler worked as part of a pit crew at the Baja 1000. When Chris explained that there was no race car, the men ransacked the family's trailer and then took them farther into the mountains. The gunmen put the family in a ditch and threw sleeping bags over them. As the Hall family lay hugging in the ditch, the men drove away. Ultimately the Halls crawled through the brush in the night to a house where a woman took them in and called police for help. Despite her assurances that they could trust these officers, the family could not help but fear they were in danger all over again. The authorities rushed them to the border. For the moment they were safe, but with the gunmen in possession of their drivers' licenses and their address, they will carry the memory of that traumatic night with them. Mexican authorities never investigated the kidnapping, and the Halls still don't know who their assailants were. Drug gangs in Mexico are known to wear police uniforms as a way to trap their victims. The story is narrated by Divinia, Chris, and Debra Hall. Other contributors: Lt. Dave Myers of the San Diego Sheriff's Department, John Schardt, Divinia's schoolmate; and "Maria", the Mexican woman who helped them. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Diary of a Showgirl" - Marjorie Orbin, a former Las Vegas showgirl and stripper, is currently serving a life sentence in a Phoenix, Arizona prison, having been convicted of murdering Jay Orbin, her husband of ten years and father of her son, Noah. On September 8, 2004, Jay was driving home from a business trip to Florida. He spoke to his mother on his cell phone, but then was never heard from again. Six weeks later, on October 23, 2004, his torso was found in a plastic container, just miles from his home. A police search warrant of the Orbin home discovered Jay's credit cards and business checkbook, which he always took with him on business trips - evidence that he had arrived home, but never actually left on another trip -- as Marjorie had claimed. Further police investigation -- including the discovery of a hardware store surveillance tape showing Marjorie buying two plastic containers exactly like the one Jay's torso was found in -- pointed to Marjorie as the murderer, and she was arrested and charged on December 6, 2004. On September 14, 2009, a jury found her guilty of murder; she was sentenced to life in prison. Marjorie, however, now claims that Larry Weisberg, with whom she had been having an affair, murdered Jay when Weisberg and Jay had a confrontation in Jay's home, after Jay had returned earlier than expected from his Florida trip and found out about the affair. She says that she had never revealed this for five years, because Weisberg had threatened to kill her son if she went to the police. Marjorie is serving a life sentence in Phoenix, Arizona. Includes interviews with: Marjorie Orbin; David Barnes, detective; Treena Kay, lead prosecutor; Joanne Orbin, Jay's mother; Jake Orbin, Jay's brother; Jan Butcher, detective. Onscreen text graphic update for this 07/31/10 rebroadcast: Marjorie Orbin is planning to appeal her conviction. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Liza Finley) (OAD: 11/21/09)

60 MINUTES PRESENTS: "Into The Wild"

"The Great Migration" - a report on the wildebeest migration across the volcanic plain of the Masai Mara in Kenya and the dangers that confront them. These include predators and the low water level in the Mara River, caused by the destruction of the Mau Forest for human agricultural needs and the burning of the trees for charcoal.

Interviewed: Robin Reid, scientist, Colorado State University; John Sena, resident of the Mau Forest; Dickson Kaelo, who works for a non-profit foundation that's paying the Masai to turn over management of their land to a wildlife conservancy. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster, Rebecca Peterson) (OAD: 10/04/09)

"The Secret Language of Elephants" - a report on efforts to decipher the meaning of sounds made by elephants, with the ultimate intention of compiling an elephant language dictionary. Includes an interview with Andrea Turkalo, an American scientist studying forest elephants in Central Africa; Peter Wrege, behavioral biologist, Cornell University; Katy Payne, founder, Elephant Listening Project. (C: Bob Simon - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 01/03/10)

"B-Rex" - an interview with Jack Horner, who consulted on all of the "Jurassic Park" movies and is considered to be one of the most prominent and controversial paleontologists in the United States. Concerned more with how dinosaurs lived, than why they went extinct, he studies their biology and what they were like as living creatures. Credited with providing the evidence that dinosaurs have evolved into what we now know as birds, Horner has proposed a plan to mine ancestral dinosaur DNA as a way to reverse-engineer a chicken into what he calls a "dino-chicken". Also interviewed: University of Wisconsin Professor Sean Carroll; North Carolina State University Professor Mary Schweitzer, protégé of Horner, who studies the internal makeup of ancient bone; and Bob Harmon, a member of Horner's team. - 1) Topics include: Miller's role as an anti-establishment Republican / various campaign positions, such as phasing out Medicare, privatizing Social Security, and reducing the amount of federal money for Alaska
- 2) Topics include: reaction to fear from some Democrats that Representative Meek's victory will take away votes from incumbent Governor Charlie Crist, who is running as an independent in the same race for Senate / support from President Obama / belief that Governor Crist and Tea Party candidate and Republican nominee Marco Rubio will be fighting for the Tea Party vote
- 3) Topics include: support for Republicans to be able to choose their own nominee -- whether it be an incumbent or a challenger / what yesterday's "Restoring Honor" rally on the Mall in Washington, D.C., says about the Tea Party's role in the Republican Party / Governor Barbour's belief that the Obama administration and the Democratic-controlled Congress has taken American policy to the extreme left / the American economy as the driving issue in the November elections / debate on whether or not to extend the soon-to-expire Bush tax cuts
- 60 MINUTES
- 08/01/10 "Out of the Shadows" - an interview with former CIA operative Henry Crumpton, about how he masterminded the downfall of the Taliban and al Qaeda in Afghanistan after 9/11, and how that same strategy, which incorporated the help of local people, is needed now in Pakistan. Also interviewed: Annullah Saleh, who is in charge of Afghanistan's security and assisted Crumpton. (C: Lara Logan - P: Howard L. Rosenberg) (OAD: 12/27/09)
- "Discovery" - a report on the discovery in South Africa of the fossilized, nearly two-million-year-old remains of what is thought to be a new species link between man and his apelike ancestors. It was discovered by Professor Lee Berger, an American paleoanthropologist at Witwatersrand University, and his son Matthew. Berger named the fossil Australopithecus Sediba. Includes an interview with Professor Lee Berger, and comments by: Job Kibbi, a colleague of Berger; Richard Leakey, paleoanthropologist; Donald Johanson, paleoanthropologist. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshan, Sarah Carter) (OAD: 04/11/10)
- "Derek" - a profile of thirty-year-old British musical savant Derek Paravicini. Born more than three months premature, Derek is blind and has severe cognitive impairment -- and also has a brilliant musical ability at the piano. Also interviewed is Adam Ockelford, Derek's teacher, and Nic Paravicini, Derek's father. (See also: "Musically Speaking" (OAD: 09/28/03); "Rex" (OAD: 10/23/05); and "Rex" (Part I and II) (OAD: 06/25/06 - an expanded version of "Rex"). 60 MINUTES (continued)

- 08/08/10 "The Cost of Dying" - a report on the high cost of end-of-life care, including procedures and surgeries that often times prolong patients' lives, and how Medicare paid $50 billion just for doctors and hospital bills during their last months. As President Obama and Congress address health care reform, these costs, which used to be a bipartisan issue, have become politically explosive, a perfect example of the health care costs that threaten to bankrupt the country. Included interviews with Dr. Ira Byock, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Lebanon, NH; Dr. Elliott Fisher, Dartmouth Institute for Health Policy; Meredith Snedeker, daughter of a patient; and David Walker of the Peter G. Peterson Foundation. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court) (OAD: 11/22/09)
- "The Patriarch" - an interview with Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, leader of the Orthodox Christian Church who lives in Turkey where ninety-nine percent of the population is Muslim. He talks about how he and his parishioners are treated like second-class citizens and why they continue to live in Turkey. Bob Simon takes a tour of ancient chapels hidden in the cliffs of Cappadocia, and St. Catherine's, a Greek Orthodox monastery, located at the foot of Mt. Sinai where, according to tradition, Moses received the Ten Commandments; and the Halki School of Theology, the only Greek Orthodox seminary in Turkey, which was closed down by Turkish authorities. Also interviewed: Sevan Karabiyik, guide; Father Justin, chief librarian at St. Catherine's. (C: Bob Simon - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 12/20/09)
- "Chef Jose Andres" - an interview and profile of Jose Andres, a chef who emigrated to the U.S. from Spain twenty years ago and whose avant-garde cooking technique, called molecular gastronomy, has made him a top American chef. Andres also discusses his volunteer work at the DC Central Kitchen in Washington, D.C. Includes comments by Ruth Reichl, food writer, and Robert Egger, founder of the DC Central Kitchen. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Bill Owens) (OAD: 05/02/10)
- 08/15/10 "A Crack In The Swiss Vault" - an interview with Bradley Birkenfeld, a U.S. citizen formerly employed in Switzerland by UBS, the Swiss bank. He provided the U.S. Justice Department with information and documentation that UBS was actively involved in helping its American clients evade U.S. taxes. He also faces criminal prosecution himself. Also interviewed: Thomas Perrelli, associate attorney general of the U.S.; Stephen Kohu, an attorney for Birkenfeld and head of the National Whistleblowers Center. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court, Keith Sharman) (OAD: 01/03/10)
- "130 Million Tons of Waste" - a report on the health risks caused by the improper disposal of coal ash, which contains mercury, arsenic, lead and other toxic metals. Problems occurred in Kingston, Tennessee, where coal ash disposed by the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) eventually spilled into the Emory River; and in Chesapeake, Virginia, where coal ash was spread under a golf course. Interviewed: Jim Roemer, lobbyist for the power industry; Leo Francendese, environmentalist for the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA); Gary Topmiller, resident who lives near the Emory River; Anda Ray, who oversees environmental policy at the TVA; Lisa Jackson, head of the EPA; Ted Yoakam, lawyer from Virginia; Robyn Pierce and Stacy Moorman, who live across the street from the contaminated golf course. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 08/06/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "The Birthday Party" - On January 21, 1998, the night before his 38th birthday, federal prosecutor Stanley Alpert was walking home late at night in lower Manhattan, when he was kidnapped at gunpoint and held hostage for 25 hours before his captors, having learned that he was a federal prosecutor, decided to release him. Before learning that fact, however, his kidnappers had intended to force him to withdraw $50,000 from his bank account, and had threatened Alpert's own life and that of his father, if Alpert did not cooperate. After his release, police were able, with Alpert's help, to track down his abductors. The kidnappers (identified only as Lucky, Ren, Sen and Louis) received sentences ranging from 15 years to life. Stanley Alpert has written a book about his ordeal. It's called "The Birthday Party". Includes interviews with: Stanley Alpert, federal prosecutor, kidnapping victim; David Prager, friend of Alpert; Dan Dorsky, friend of Alpert; FBI special agents Kathleen Flynn, Richard Meade, David Burroughs, David Biddiscombe; Bill Glynn, NYPD detective. (No Correspondent is used for this broadcast. Producers: Sara Rodriguez, Clare Friedland, Kevin Hayes) (OAD: 12/19/09)
- 08/07/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Love and Death In Alaska" - an update of the 09/13/08 rebroadcast of "Love and Death In Alaska". On May 2, 1996, the body of Kent Leppink was found off a deserted road 90 miles south of Anchorage, Alaska. He had been shot three times. Police investigation discovered that he had been involved with Mechele Hughes, a young woman who worked as a stripper in a club called the Great Alaskan Bush Company. Mechele was also involved with two other men -- John Carlin III and Scott Hilke. Ten years later, after further investigation, Mechele (now Mechele Linchan) and John Carlin were indicted for Leppink's murder. At his trial, Carlin was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to 99 years in prison. At her trial, she was also found guilty of first degree murder. She awaits sentencing. Among those interviewed are: Mechele Linchan; Linda Branchflower, detective; Ken and Betsy Leppink, parents of Kent; Scott Hilke, salesman; John Carlin III; John Carlin IV; Megan Holland, reporter, Anchorage Daily News; Tina Brady, stripper; Kristina Hermach, friend of Mechele Linchan; Colin Linchan, Mechele's husband; Pat Gullufsen, special cold case prosecutor; Sydney Billingslea, lawyer for John Carlin III; Kevin Fitzgerald, lawyer for Mechele Linchan. 08/07/10 Update: In February 2010, an appeals court reversed Mechele's conviction for murder and she will be given a new trial. John Carlin III was involved in a prison fight in 2008 and beaten to death. Because his appeal was pending at the time he died, the court has thrown out his entire case. In Mechele's new trial, prosecutors can't mention Carlin ever was convicted. Onscreen graphics update: Mechele Linchan's retrial is expected to begin next year. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager, Mark H. Smith) (OAD: 03/08/08 as "Love and Death in the Wild"; Rebroadcast: 09/13/08 as "Love and Death In Alaska" which included a brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)
- 08/14/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Justice in the Heartland" (9:00-10:00pm) - On May 20, 2005, 27-year-old Mike Golub, resident of Johnson City, Kansas, left work to pick up his young son, Mikey, at the home of Shannon Albers Floyd, Mike's ex-girlfriend and the mother of their son, Mikey. Shannon was now married to Chad Floyd, a member of a rich and powerful Johnson City family. But Mike disappeared after he left work, and was never seen again. His family immediately became suspicious that Shannon and Chad Floyd were responsible: Mike had wanted more time with his son, and he and the Floyds were at odds over this. In addition, the Floyds, who wanted to move out of Kansas, had been told that, if they left the state, Shannon would probably lose custody of Mikey to his father. Five days after his disappearance, Mike's truck was found in a remote field, but with no evidence of foul play. Police investigation of the Floyd's home revealed small amounts of blood and Mike Golub's DNA on the unpainted underside of their newly repainted front deck. Other circumstantial evidence also made police suspicious of the Floyds. In 2006, Shannon and Chad Floyd were arrested and charged with Mike's murder; Chad's father posted their $2 million bond bail. In 2007, they were tried -- but the jury declared itself deadlocked after two days of deliberations. Prosecutors re-filed the charges, and in April 2008, there was a second trial -- and, once again, the jury declared itself deadlocked, after two days of deliberations. Prosecutors ultimately decided against a third trial, fearing another hung jury. The Floyds went free, and Mike Golub is officially still missing. Includes interviews with: Deb Golub, Mike's mother; Crissy Golub, Mike's sister; Danae Meurer, friend of Mike Golub; Shannon and Steve Morris, friends of Mike Golub; Mary Hart, business owner in Johnson City; Sally Ochoa, child custody worker, Kansas; Joseph Moura, detective, 48 HOURS consultant; Paul Ciolino, detective, 48 HOURS consultant. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 08/14/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the March 2007 disappearance of 911 operator Theresa Parker of LaFayette, Georgia. Theresa had recently separated from police officer husband Sam Parker, whom she had married in 1993. One night, after visiting her sister Christina Hall, Theresa vanished. Police found her car at Theresa and Sam's house, but there was no sign of her and no obvious signs of foul play. Police investigation revealed that Sam was an abusive husband with a drinking problem. When investigators found vacuum marks, Theresa's blood and Sam Parker's DNA in the back of Theresa's SUV, he was arrested and charged with his wife's murder. Prosecutors believed that Sam had murdered Theresa, drove off and disposed of her body. Parker insisted he had not killed his wife and suspected that she had run off to Mexico. The jurors said the task of deciding Sam Parker's fate was particularly daunting because they had an overwhelming amount of circumstantial evidence, but not much else. After three days of deliberation, the jurors seemed hopelessly deadlocked. The judge urged them to give it one more try. After a closer look at cell phone records, the jury found him guilty of first-degree murder. He was immediately sentenced to life in prison. Theresa's family believes that Parker may be the only one who holds the key to finding Theresa's body, but he still insists that he did not kill her and does not know where she is. Interviewed: Christina Hall; Sam Parker; Rhonda Knox, Theresa's friend and co-worker; Walker County Sheriff Steve Wilson; Special Agent James Harris of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Kenneth Parker, Sam's brother; FBI Special Agent Marc Veazey; Defense Attorneys David Dunn and Doug Woodward; Prosecutor Leigh Patterson; Keila Beard, Sam Parker's former wife; unidentified members of the jury. 08/14/10 - Domestic Violence Hotline number is listed onscreen. - 08/20/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Seven Days Of Rage: The Craigslist Killer - The Final Chapter" (8:00-9:00pm) - An update to "Seven Days of Rage: The Craigslist Killer" (OAD: 09/19/09). On April 14, 2009, model and masseuse Julissa Brisman was found murdered in a Boston hotel. Over the course of the next seven days, police investigation revealed that Brisman and two other female victims of assault had been contacted through ads they had placed on the website Craigslist. Police traced computer evidence to Philip Markoff, a medical student at Boston University. He was arrested for kidnapping, armed robbery and murder. A search of his apartment produced incriminating evidence, including the gun that killed Julissa Brisman. Further investigation of Markoff's e-mail address revealed his own ads on several adult alternative-lifestyle websites. Concluding onscreen graphic: Philip Markoff is expected to stand trial next June. Craigslist renamed its erotic services section, calling it adult services. Critics say nothing has changed. Among those interviewed: Trisha Leffler, Markoff's first victim; Maria Cramer, reporter, The Boston Globe and 48 HOURS consultant; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paul LaRosa, 48 HOURS producer; Mark Pines, friend of victim Julissa Brisman; Maureen Orth, writer; Casey Jordan, attorney and psychologist; Morgan Houston, friend of Philip Markoff; Steve Huff, crime blogger and contributor to the True Crime Report. 08/20/10 Update: Includes a new interview with Boston Globe reporter Maria Cramer regarding the August 15, 2010 suicide of Philip Markoff. Onscreen graphics update: Megan McAllister is attending medical school in the Caribbean. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

08/21/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Addicted To Love" - An update to the 08/02/08 rebroadcast of "Addicted To Love". When police arrived at the Franklin, Tennessee apartment of Lesa Buchanan on the Fourth of July weekend in 2005, they were surprised by what they found in her home: a cache of prescription drugs and sex toys. Lesa and her boyfriend, Dr. Christ Koulis, had spent most of that final weekend in her bedroom, having sex. Koulis, a plastic surgeon, had called 911 when she stopped breathing, and said he performed CPR, but that there was no pulse. When Lesa was rushed to the emergency room, the doctors trying to save her life said Dr. Koulis told them nothing about the drugs she had been using -- information that could have been crucial in saving her life. With Lesa dead, investigators quickly focused on drugs. At her apartment, detectives discovered used syringes with traces of oxycodone -- a powerful narcotic used to kill pain and available only from a prescribing physician. After a five month investigation, Dr. Koulis was arrested on four charges -- ranging from simple assault to second degree murder. At the trial, prosecutors alleged Dr. Koulis had injected Lesa with oxycodone during the course of the weekend, which eventually led to her death. But the defense claimed Lesa injected herself, and that she had a drug problem - a claim her family and investigators disputed. Ultimately, Dr. Koulis was found guilty of criminally negligent homicide. He will likely remain free until 2009, pending his appeal. 08/21/10 Update: Five years after Lesa Buchanan's death, and with his appeal still pending, Christ Koulis was found dead at a friend's apartment. Toxicology reports state the cause of death as bronchial pneumonia due to opiate intoxication, a drug overdose. Because his case was in appeal, his attorney David Raybin was able get his 2007 conviction dropped by the state's Court of Criminal Appeals. However, the attorney general's office is fighting to have that conviction reinstated. Koulis' attorney feels the conviction should be vacated. The update also includes brief commentary from attorney Raybin and Lesa's sister, Tara Bentley. 60 MINUTES

- 09/05/10 "60 Billion Dollar Fraud" - a report on Medicare and Medicaid fraud, focusing on criminals in South Florida, who set up phony clinics and pharmacies and, with the use of illegally obtained but valid patient numbers and Medicare codes, are able to bill Medicare for unrequested and undelivered supplies. Interviewed: FBI Special Agent Brian Waterman; Justice Department prosecutor Kirk Ogrosky, who oversees half a dozen Medicare fraud strike forces; United States Attorney General Eric Holder; "Tony" (not his real name), who ran a string of phony medical supply companies; Clara Mahoney and Ed Davis, two Medicare patients who reported fraudulent charges on their Medicare statements; and Kim Brandt, Medicare's Director of Program Integrity. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen, Joel Bach) (OAD: 10/25/09)
- "The Seed School" - a profile of The SEED Public Charter School, the nation's first urban public boarding school. With admission by lottery only, this charter school, paid for by private and government money, aims to provide poor inner city students with the twenty-four hour supportive academic and social environment of the boarding school experience. Includes interviews with: Raj Vinnakota and Eric Adler, creators of the concept of SEED; Charles Adams, the head of school; Lesley Poole, SEED administrator; Jawan Harris, SEED teacher. Also interviewed are several SEED students. (C: Byron Pitts - P: Ruth Streeter) (OAD: 05/23/10)
- "Doubles" - a profile and interview with Mike and Bob Bryan, identical twins who are pro tennis' leading doubles champions. Also includes comments by their father, Wayne Bryan, and by tennis player brothers Patrick and John McEnroe. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On) (OAD: 03/21/10)
- 09/12/10 "21st Century Snake Oil" - a report on medical conmen who claim that their stem cell therapies can reverse incurable diseases such as cancer, multiple sclerosis and Lou Gehrig's disease (ALS). Focussing on Lawrence Stowe (of Stowe Biotherapy, La Mesa, California) and his associate, Frank Morales, hidden cameras document their false promises and exorbitant financial requests. Also discussed is how the potential promise of stem cell research has prompted the proliferation of bogus stem cell clinics which, via the internet, have a global reach. Includes interviews with: Steven Watters and Michael Martin, ALS victims; Lawrence Stowe, medical conman; Frank Morales, medical conman; Keith Erickson and his wife, Muna, a multiple sclerosis victim and former patient of Stowe; Professor Sean Morrison, director, University of Michigan Center for Stem Cell Biology; Larry Goldstein, stem cell biologist, and Doug Sipp, researcher, International Society for Stem Cell Research. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Gelber, Sam Hornblower, Michael Radutzky) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 04/18/10). This 09/12/10 rebroadcast includes a brief update by Scott Pelley at its conclusion.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

09/04/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lies and Whispers" (9:00-10:00p) - A follow-up to "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" (OAD: 11/12/05) and "Truth On Trial" (OAD: 11/15/08), detailing the third trial of Daniel Wade Moore, who was first convicted of murdering Karen Tipton, a mother and wife of psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, in her Decatur, Alabama home in 1999. As detailed in "Truth On Trial", eight months after his conviction, in 2005, the verdict was reversed by the same judge who had sentenced him to death. A second trial was held, ending in a hung jury. This report details his third trial (2009) in which his lawyers made use of new evidence to turn suspicion back to Dr. Tipton, by using an FBI report that said Karen Tipton was having multiple affairs and may have known her killer. After a month of testimony, Moore is found not guilty of the crime. Moore has moved away from Alabama after receiving death threats and plans to sue the city of Decatur and police for violating his right to a fair trial. Interviewed: Daniel Wade Moore; Sherman Powell, Moore's attorney; presiding Judge Glenn Thompson; Dr. David Tipton; Ken Collier, former chief of investigations for the Decatur Police who is now the police chief; Sparky Moore, Moore's uncle; Pam Smith, a Tipton neighbor; Co-prosecutor Corey Maze; Virginia Byrd, Moore's mother. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Susan Mallie, Paul LaRosa) See also: "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" (OAD: 11/12/05; rebroadcast on 06/06/06) and "Truth On Trial" - an update of "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" (OAD: 11/15/08). 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 09/04/10 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Krystal's Courage" (10:00-11:00p) - an updated and edited version of "Krystal's Courage" (OAD 08/16/02). On December 30, 1999, 10-year-old Krystal Surles, a Yates, Kansas girl, and her friend Kaylene Harris were attacked in Kaylene's Del Rio, Texas home, by a knife-wielding intruder who slashed both girls' throats. Kaylene died... Krystal not only survived the attack but was able to help a police sketch artist draw an image that led to the arrest of her attacker, Tommy Lynn Sells. After his arrest Sells confessed to the crime and revealed that he had been traveling across the country killing men, women and children for twenty years and had never in the past left a witness alive. Krystal Surles testified during Sells' trial for the December 1999 murder of Kaylene Harris, which ended in his being sentenced to death. This updated edition includes new commentary by Krystal Surles; Marque Surles, her sister; Pam Surles, her mother; Mark Surles, her father; Johnny Allen, Texas Ranger. Updated text graphic at conclusion: Krystal, now 20, lives with her father in Idaho. Tommy Lynn Sells has been on death row for nine years. (C: Harold Dow - P: Chris Young) (OAD as "Krystal's Courage", a two-part edition of 48 HOURS MYSTERIES, with an original broadcast date of 08/16/02. "Krystal's Courage" was originally broadcast as "Dead Men Tell No Tales" Part I, 02/01/01 and as "Dead Men Tell No Tales" Part II, 02/08/01.) (OAD: 11/28/09). This 09/04/10 rebroadcast includes a brief video postscript featuring commentary by the late Correspondent Harold Dow on the occasion of his reunion with Krystal and her family in 2009.
- 09/11/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Innocence Lost" - a follow-up to "Who Killed These Girls" (OAD: 03/25/92) and "Deadly Encounters" (OAD: 09/14/98). In December 1991, four teenage girls were found murdered in an Austin, Texas yogurt shop. The girls had been tied up, stripped down, at least one was raped, shot in the head and their naked bodies were stacked in a corner then set on fire. In the weeks after the murders, authorities received countless tips, many false confessions and even interrogated teenagers Maurice Pierce, Michael Scott, Robert Springsteen and Forrest Welborn. With no solid evidence, they were released. There were no developments in the investigation until 1999, when new detectives assigned to the case made the announcement that they had made four arrests: the same four suspects, whom police had interrogated to eight years earlier. The charges against Welborn and Pierce were dropped. Scott and Springsteen each stood trial for murder. Both were convicted, with Springsteen sentenced to death and Scott sentenced to life in prison. On appeal, the convictions were overturned when DNA evidence did not match any of the suspects. It was from an unknown male. The Travis County District Attorney, Rosemary Lehnberg, says there is no statute of limitations for murder, and they will continue the investigation until the person(s) responsible for these murders are brought to justice. For now Scott and Springsteen are free; and the girls' families are still dealing with the deaths of their daughters. Interviewed: John Jones, lead detective in 1991; Mike Huckabay, Jones' partner; Bob Ayers, Pam Ayers, Barbara Ayers-Wilson, Maria Thomas, parents of the victims; suspects Forrest Welborn, Robert Springsteen; Jim Sawyer, Springsteen's attorney; District Attorney Rosemary Lehnberg; Saul Kassin, psychology professor at John Jay College for Criminal Justice (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 01/09/10)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Vegas Heat" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report on the December 14, 2005 discovery of the charred corpse of a young woman, found in a burned-out car on a Las Vegas, Nevada desert road. The car was registered to Kelly Ryan, a fitness champion who is married to Craig Titus, a Mr. Olympia competitor. Both were stars of the body building world and also hard partiers, known for using illegal drugs and pain killers. The unrecognizable body was initially thought to be Ryan, but authorities were stunned when they arrived at the couple's house only to be greeted by her at the door. When asked about the car, Craig and Kelly claimed that it had been taken the day before by Melissa James, their 31-year-old live-in assistant and a dancer, who was headed to New Jersey to spend Christmas with her mother. Melissa never made it to New Jersey and when pressed, Craig and Kelly accused her of theft -- that she stole the Jaguar and used Kelly's debit card to steal from them. Detectives were lucky and discovered that Kelly's debit card was last used at Wal-Mart by Kelly, who purchased seven bottles of lighter fluid. Panicked by the police visit, Craig and Kelly confided in Megan Foley, Kelly's friend, that a fight between Kelly and Melissa had spiraled out of control -- Kelly tased Melissa, injected her with narcotics and that it ended when Craig choked her. Megan's attorney contacted the police. Armed with that information, police issued a warrant for their arrest. Eventually, the FBI tracked the couple to Boston, where they were charged with murder and arson. Twenty-one days after the body was found, it was officially identified as Melissa James. But because the body was so badly burned, the coroner could not say for sure how Melissa died or if it was even murder. Craig had a different story and in an interview, told 48 HOURS that Melissa had attacked Kelly and that he interceded on his wife's behalf. Enraged, Melissa ran upstairs to her room and when Craig checked on her, she was dead. Craig also claimed that he, Melissa, and Kelly had been using drugs for days leading up to the fight and that her death was an overdose. High on drugs, they panicked and disposed of her body in the desert. As the trial was about to begin, Craig and Kelly each accepted a plea deal -- Craig for second-degree murder, kidnapping, and arson; Kelly for battery and arson. After further courtroom dramatics, Craig Titus was sentenced to 21 to 55 years and Kelly Ryan to six to 17 years in prison. Craig has filed a motion to reduce his sentence. Kelly says her marriage to Craig is over. Graphic update for the 07/14/09 rebroadcast: Craig Titus' request to reduce his sentence or let him stand trial was denied. Kelly Ryan has filed for a divorce. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson, Chris O'Connell) (OAD: 11/08/08; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/14/09)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Buried Secrets of Las Vegas" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the death of gaming tycoon Ted Binion, who was found dead in his Las Vegas home more than a decade ago. The son of legendary gambling impresario Benny Binion, Ted was a brilliant casino operator himself. Paranoid about his wealth, he stashed millions of dollars worth of silver in a hidden vault in Pahrump, Nevada. Ted was also addicted to smoking heroin. Prior to his death, he became involved with Sandy Murphy, and it was she who told police in September 1998 that she had found him dead of an apparent drug overdose. However Binion's sister, Becky Binion Behnen, insisted to police that this was no drug overdose and demanded an investigation. Police discovered that Sandy was having an affair with Rick Tabish, and theorized that they were trying to steal Ted's buried treasure. Both were charged with his murder and both were found guilty of murder in the first degree. While imprisoned, Sandy contacted Alan Dershowitz, who agreed to take on her appeal. The Nevada Supreme Court agreed with Dershowitz's arguments and overturned both convictions. After the second trial, both Murphy and Tabish were found not guilty of murder, but were found guilty of stealing Binion's buried silver from the Pahrump vault. Many believe that much of Binion's money is still missing. 48 HOURS retained ground sonar experts to search the Binion estate, which had remained empty since his death; nothing was found. Tabish remains in prison because of a prior record; Murphy returned to California where she married an art dealer. Tabish's latest bid for parole is under consideration. Murphy is suing the state of Nevada, alleging false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. Interviewed: Sandy Murphy; Wayne Newton, Las Vegas entertainer; Glenn Puit, author; Becky Binion Behnen, Ted's sister; Christine Lefkowitz, Las Vegas realtor; Wayne Peterson, the Las Vegas Police Lieutenant who led the investigation; Ed Howard, Nye County Police Lieutenant, who saw Tabish digging up the vault in Pahrump; Attorney Alan Dershowitz; Rainey Williams, evidence custodian; and Jared Lampe, ground penetrating radar technician. Graphic update for the 09/18/10 rebroadcast: Rick Tabish was released on parole May 17, 2010, after more than ten years in prison. Ted Binion's home on Palomino Drive remains unsold. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: James STOL, Chris O'Connell, Jenni Jackson) (OAD: 01/23/10)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Killing Game" - a report on the California criminal justice system's 40-year pursuit of Rodney James Alcalá, from his 1968 abduction, rape and attempted murder of 8-year old Tali Shapiro in Los Angeles, to his 2010 conviction --with the help of advances in DNA technology-- for the kidnapping, rape and murder of five California women. Although he had been initially apprehended in New York in 1971, the prosecution at that time had no choice but to enter into a plea agreement with Alcalá: Tali Shapiro's parents had moved out of the country after the incident, and Tali was unavailable for trial. He pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of child molestation and was ultimately convicted -- but released by a parole board after thirty-four months in prison. In 1979, Alcalá abducted and murdered 12-year-old Robin Samson. With the help of her friend, Bridget Wilvurt, police identified Alcalá as a suspect. He was arrested for Robin Samson's murder. Police discovered a storage facility he had rented in Seattle, which contained photographs he had taken of more than one hundred young women, including photos which placed him near the scene of Robin Samson's abduction. It also contained jewelry worn by Robin, and identified as such by her mother. In February 1980, Alcalá went on trial; he was convicted, and sentenced to death. In 1984, the California State Supreme Court then ruled that he had not received a fair trial. He was tried and convicted a second time...and again the verdict was overturned. In 2003, DNA technology enabled Los Angeles Deputy District Attorney Gina Satriano to link Alcalá to three other unsolved murders: Jill Barcomb, Georgia Wixted, and Charlotte Lamb, all of whom had been killed between November 1977 and June 1978. Evidence also linked Alcalá to the 1979 murder of another Los Angeles woman, Jill Parenteau. In January 2010, Alcalá went on trial for all of these murders -- and was found guilty and sentenced to death. Includes interviews with: Chris Camacho, Los Angeles police officer; Matt Murphy, deputy District Attorney, Orange County, CA; Steve Hodel, detective; Bridget Wilvurt, friend of Robin Samson; Marianne Connelly, mother of Robin Samson; Robert and Tim Samson, brothers of Robin Samson; Beth Kelleher, former girlfriend of Alcalá; Pat Ellis, Detective; Lori Werts, photo subject of Alcalá; Gina Satriano, deputy District Attorney, Los Angeles; Tali Shapiro, victim of Alcalá; Graphic conclusion: investigators want the public's help in identifying people in Rodney Alcalá's photographs. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"Faith In Action" - a report on how young people are creating change today in a world of conflict, poverty, and social inequality. Among the examples portrayed: (1) Artsbridge, a conflict resolution leadership program founded by Debbie Nathan, a mental health counselor and art therapist, who wanted to start a program that helps young people living in conflict. Each July, Israeli and Palestinian high school students are invited to Boston, Massachusetts, to collaborate on an art project. (2) Students from the Gates Presbyterian Church Youth Group in Rochester, New York, came to New York City to volunteer for the Youth Services Opportunities Project (YSOP), a decades-old service-oriented program inspired by the Quakers. Working alongside Lisa Gesson, Program Director for YSOP, they volunteered at the Congregation B'nai Jeshurun lunch program. (3) Aaron Dorfman, Vice President of Programs, described the work of American Jewish World Services, an organization which provides the opportunity for young adults (ages 16-24) to volunteer for summer projects in impoverished areas around the world. A recent project in Ghana is focused on. (4) Nadia, a young Muslim woman, is followed as she fulfills her faith obligations during the holy month of Ramadan. "Muslims Against Hunger", a non-profit organization, is one such place where Nadia volunteers. Zahir Hassan, the founder of the organization, discusses how the volunteers of all faiths work in underserved communities in 20 different cities across the United States, serving hot lunches and dinners to the homeless and working poor. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Kathleen Fieffe. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington.
